

History Vision Map

Year 2 – The Modern British Royal Family 1952 - today

Crucial Knowledge	Intent
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• In the UK, a king or queen is the highest leader but they cannot make rules or laws for everyone else.• King Charles III is the King of the United Kingdom.• King Charles' mum was Queen Elizabeth II. She was the Queen of the United Kingdom longer than any other king or queen.• Prince Philip was King Charles III father.• A charity is a group that raises money and helps other people.• The military means soldiers.• A residence is a person's home that is large and impressive.• The Commonwealth is a family of countries from all over the world. All the countries are very different but work together.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Recap: Events Now and Then: Air Travel (Year 1)• King Charles III and the family tree• The Role of the Royal Family• Charity work• Military Links• Royal Residences• The Church of England and links with other faiths• The King and the Law• The Commonwealth